Urging the Government of Syria to withdraw its armed forces from Lebanon.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

JUNE 19, 1996

Mr. ENGEL (for himself, Mr. ACKERMAN, Mr. ANDREWS, Mr. BERMAN, Mr. BURTON of Indiana, Mr. CHABOT, Mr. DEUTSCH, Mr. DORNAN, Mr. FORBES, Mr. FRANK of Massachusetts, Mr. GEJDENSON, Mr. HASTINGS of Florida, Mr. KILDEE, Mr. KING, Mr. KNOLLENBERG, Mr. LAHOOD, Mr. LANTOS, Mr. LEVIN, Mrs. LOWEY, Mr. MCCOLLUM, Mr. McNULTY, Ms. MOLINARI, Ms. ROS-LEHTINEN, Mr. SAXTON, and Mr. TORRICELLI) submitted the following concurrent resolution; which was referred to the Committee on International Relations

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Urging the Government of Syria to withdraw its armed forces from Lebanon.

Whereas Syria continues to exert undue influence upon the Government of Lebanon, maintaining between 35,000 and 40,000 soldiers in Lebanon;

Whereas Syria has pledged publicly and privately to abide by the Taif Agreement of 1989, which required that 2 years after certain Lebanese political conditions were achieved in September 1990, Syria would withdraw its armed forces stationed in Lebanon to the gateway of the Bekaa Valley with complete withdrawal occurring shortly thereafter;

Whereas in Senate Concurrent Resolution 129 and House Concurrent Resolution 339 of the 102d Congress, Congress called upon Syria to withdraw its armed forces to the gateway of the Bekaa Valley by September 1992 in accordance with the Taif Agreement of 1989, as a prelude to complete withdrawal from Lebanon;

Whereas in Senate Concurrent Resolution 28 of the 103d Congress, the Senate strongly urged Syria to withdraw its armed forces to the gateway of the Bekaa Valley without further delay and called upon the Governments of Syria and Lebanon to agree immediately upon a firm timetable for the complete withdrawal of Syrian armed forces, including military, paramilitary, and security services from Lebanon;

Whereas in Senate Concurrent Resolution 28 of the 103d Congress, the Senate called upon the Governments of Syria and Lebanon to disarm nongovernmental armed groups and militias in Lebanon, as required by the Taif Agreement;

Whereas nongovernmental armed groups and militias continue to operate in Lebanon with the acquiescence and support of the Syrian and Lebanese Governments;

Whereas recent attacks upon northern Israel were carried out by Hezbollah, a group based in Lebanon and receiving support from and through Damascus;

Whereas Syria did not attend the March 13, 1996, anti-terrorism Summit of the Peacemakers in Sharm el Sheikh, Egypt, and has not participated in subsequent meetings;

Whereas the Government of Syria is currently prohibited by law from receiving United States assistance;

Whereas the Lebanese elections of September 1992 were held in a climate of heavy foreign military and political domination and due to widespread electoral irregularities and a boycott by a large percentage of the Lebanese people, the results of the elections were not representative of the full spectrum of the Lebanese body politic;

Whereas, according to the Lebanese constitution, new elections for the Lebanese Parliament must take place between August 15, 1996, and October 15, 1996; and

Whereas Syria exerted undue pressure upon the Lebanese Parliament, forcing it to use extra-constitutional means to extend the term of President Hrawi: Now, therefore, be it
